70

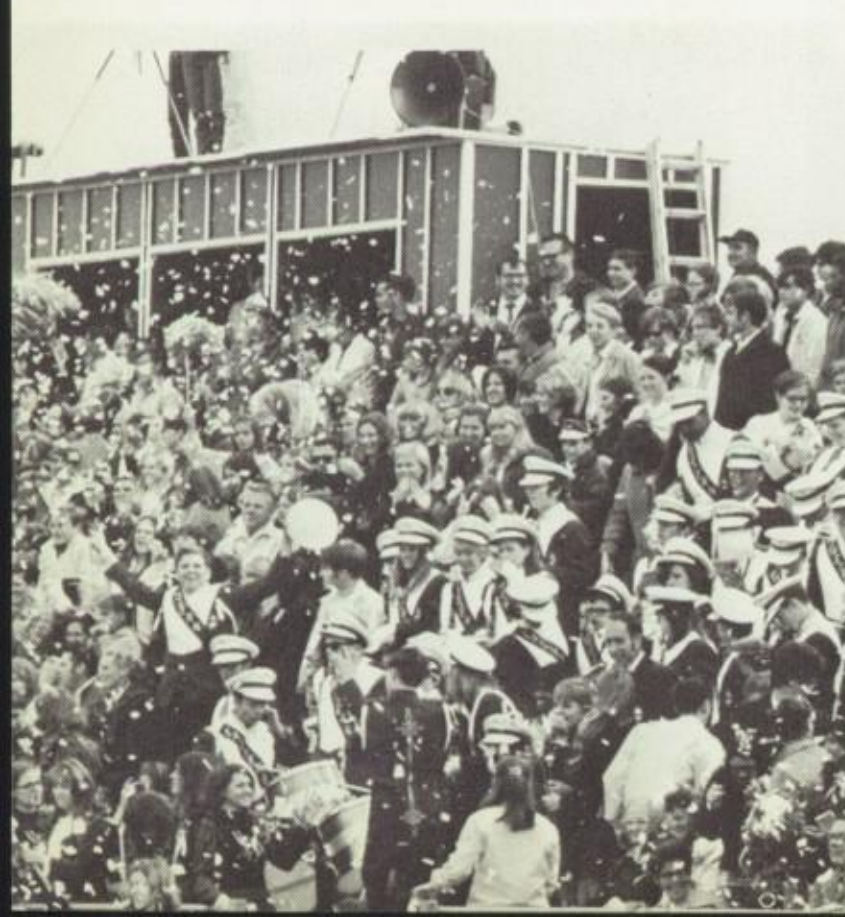

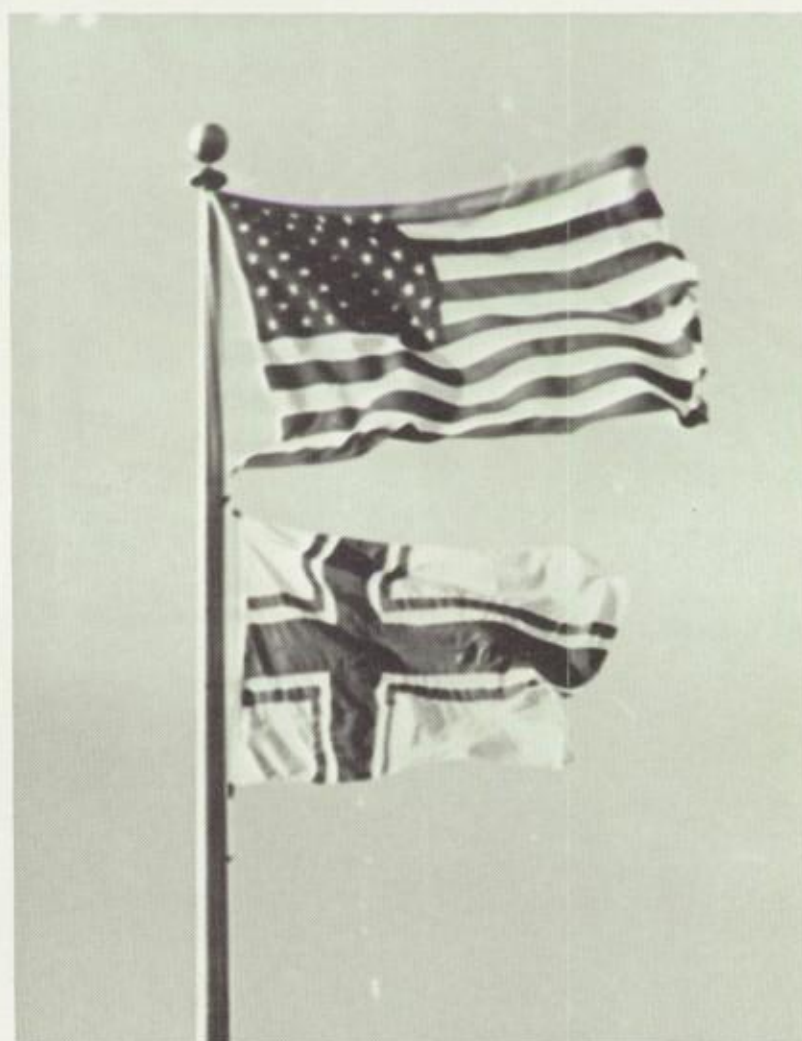

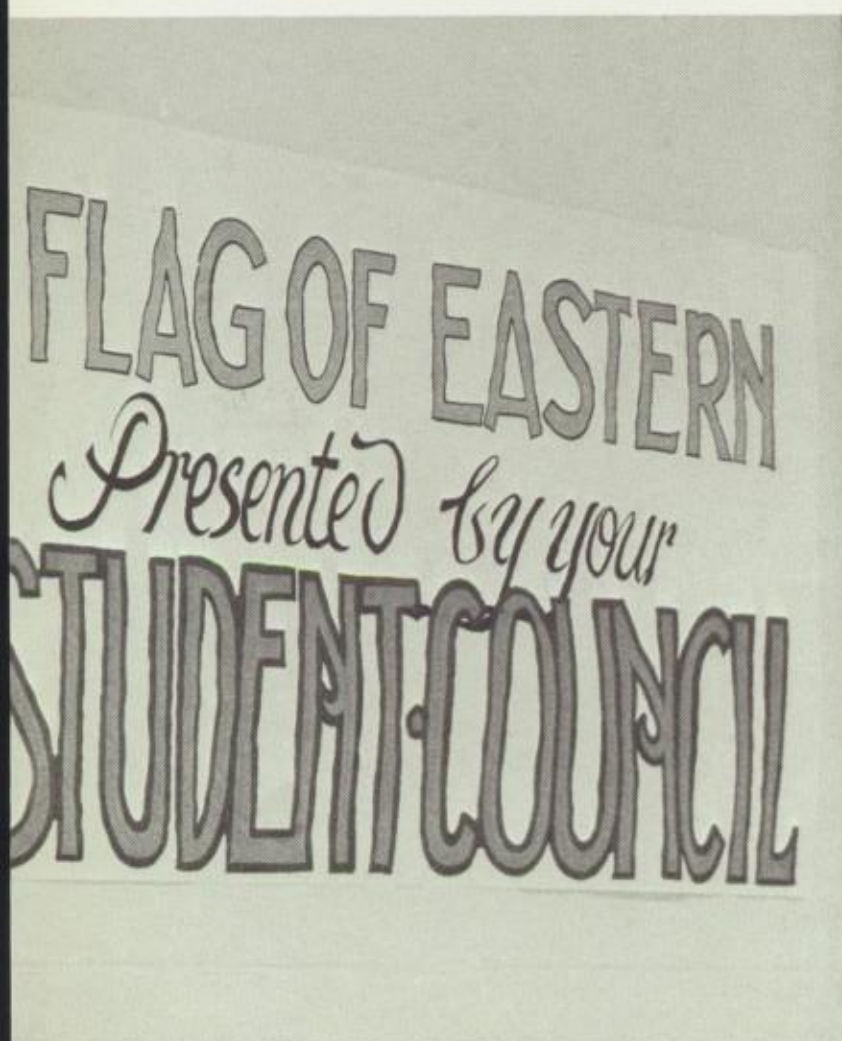

Look not mournfully into the Past. It comes not back again.
Wisely improve the Present. It is thine.
Go forth to meet the shadowy Future, without fear,
and with a manly heart.

Dedication

With foresight and enthusiasm he worked to make our high school experiences meaningful and unforgettable, and to prepare us for achieving success in the future. His wisdom and understanding, tempered with ready interest, proved invaluable to our success as a class and his influence will long remain with each one of us.

For these reasons and many more, we the Class of 1970 are deeply grateful to Mr. Thomas Shropshire and dedicate to him one year of our lives.

MESSAGE FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT —

The world is changing very rapidly. You are growing into adulthood in truly difficult times. You will be called upon to make some very important decisions that will effect your life.

I sincerely hope that the four years you have completed at Eastern High will help you make these decisions more wisely.

I also hope that you can make a contribution to our society by helping to bring about positive change.

The Class of '70 has made many contributions to Eastern and we are sincerely proud of you.

I wish you all the best of luck, success and happiness.

William O. Wert
Principal

Spiritually, man needs meaning and purpose to his life. The choice of purposes and ideals is what distinguishes one man from another. To attain these purposes and ideals he must be drawn outside himself, free from the environmental and hereditary determination of his actions. By attaching himself to ideals he lays an enduring foundation for sturdy independence. By devotion to ideals he can achieve self expression and fulfillment. This will lead to a life of integrity and individuality.

We hope that you have begun to develop ways of distinguishing true individuality from the bizarre. If you have we at Eastern feel our purpose is achieved.

These last four years passed quickly it seems.
Yet they were long, rich in memories and dreams.
At times we were happy — remember them all?
At times we were sad — those days we recall.
Months have flown by; graduation is near.
Life beckons us with auspicion and fear.
So for one last time let us tread now the land of golden memories
But not to linger there in dreams; for lifes road is long ahead.

Class of '70

TO THE CLASS OF '70

The years have passed at Eastern and the final moment of graduation is nearing. However, it is appropriate that we should pause and reflect upon our past four years.

We have been the most successful class to graduate from Eastern. Our pride in our class and in our school is evident. Success speaks for itself: our prom, "The Impossible Dream;" winning the float contest for two consecutive years; gaining Senior privileges; the Senior Play, "The Odd Couple;" and the Senior Trip to Montreal, Canada. However, our biggest accomplishment is the respect that we have earned from others.

It has been an honor to be your President and also to have worked with you as a friend.

In closing, I thank you, my classmates, Miss Gongol for having been the class' co-advisor; and, I sincerely thank Mr. Shropshire for having been a dedicated advisor.

Sincerely,

Juanita D. Tweed

The Class of 70 is ready to graduate. I call you a family because of the joys, the sorrows, the genuiness of concern, and the successful accomplishments you have shared with each other over the past four years. Within the bloodstream of this family flows an unforgettable pride that was injected into this family through the unified efforts and concerns of its members.

I find it difficult to put into words my feelings towards the Class of 70. This class has been very meaningful to my life. You allowed me to work with you and placed confidence in my decisions; you were receptive to suggestions and ideas and shared your success, happiness, and pride with me. I have a profound and sincere pride to be a member of your family. My mind is embedded with the wonderful memories that we all have shared.

As you step into adulthood, I charge you with the following: first, that you will always venerate the name of Eastern High School and the Class of 70; second, that you will share yourself with others, especially your children, as you have shared yourself with me and the Class of 70; third, that you will meet the challenges and responsibilities of life with the same vitality and confidence that you met those that confronted you as students at Eastern High School.

Class of '71

Involvement has become the touchstone of our times, and the Class of '71 is in touch with the times. The depth of their concern with their class, their school and their society provides the greatest assurance they can give of a successful and fruitful senior year. It is with great expectation and confidence, that I look forward to their year as Eastern's senior leaders.

I believe that the 1969-70 E.H.S. Student Council was an organization that was effective, and a council that worked for Eastern High even though we did not have student support.

The officers and a few hard working students accomplished many things this year. The Student Council activities began with Eastern's first Spirit Week, a week designed to generate school spirit before our first football game. The highlights of Spirit Week were the crowning of Eastern's first Mr. Viking and our first Kick Off Dance. Another first was this year's Teacher's Tea which was designed to acquaint students and new teachers. Our first traditional activity was Homecoming. Our next traditional project was the combined Bonfire-Alumni Dance. To give all classes a chance to attend a Student Council sponsored semi-formal, this year's council held the Christmas Ball at the beginning of Christmas vacation. To instill pride in our school, the Student Council purchased a school flag. Another project was the organization of this year's Student Fair. Other projects were the dress code revisions, the placement of a juke box in the cafeteria, publication of the first Student Council newspaper, the collection of money for shoes for needy children, Student Day, co-operation between the Senior Class and the Student Council concerning Senior privileges, and finally running this year's Student Council elections.

I sincerely believe that this year's Student Council record of accomplishments proves that our few hard working members and the dedicated officers did an excellent job for Eastern High School. I hope that future councils can do as well!

Then a pain;
Out of the dead, cold ashes,
Life again.
